Reflection by Fr. Tom

After this long hot summer, you're back! Back to school! Back to books! Back to friends you left last May! And in the rush of these events, you're also back to continuing your faith journey at campuses that are viable to your formation as young adults. Here at CCM, we want you to continue growing in the Lord's presence and his love. For your convenience, we have three Masses on Sunday, each a little different in their music and congregations. At each Mass, you can actively participate as lectors, Eucharistic ministers, or in the choir as musicians or singers. Sister Michelle will need sacristans and greeters. Monday thru Friday we have Mass at noon. Starting September 1, every Thursday we'll have the Sacrament of Reconciliation and adoration from 7:00 p.m. until 9:00 and this will be followed by Mass at 9:15. If you looking to complete your sacramental formation or if you are exploring the possibility of becoming Catholic, we have the R.C.I.A. program as well as sacramental preparation. Planning to get married here in Springfield or elsewhere? You can do your paperwork and classes here at CCM. CCM's students also offer Bible studies that will help immerse you in the Church's scriptures. How about a place to just relax on a cold winter's night? You could wrap yourself in an afghan and stretch out in front of the fireplace as you ponder how you're going to finish all your homework. Maybe you're a pool shark or you like sand volleyball; you're in luck! Or maybe you just want to chill in front of the TV. Wednesday nights are social nights with food and fun. Friday's lunch can be the start of the weekend. Of course there's a lot more but I'm running out of space! CCM is here for you! The Student Council is planning some great activities to help make CCM "your home away from home" for the next 9 months!
