“Finding God in the midst of Chaos and Violence.”

Sunday, November 5, following 11 am Mass, with coffee and refreshments in the fireside room.

A Christian brother from the Middle East will be speaking about how God is at work in Iraq among refugees fleeing from ISIS. The violence and chaos from ISIS is causing many people to want to know about Jesus Christ, and our brother is a witness of hundreds of people converting in the last several years - even in face of threats to Christians. He will share his story and the ways he has seen God on the move in Iraq, and encourages us to remain rooted to Christ and actively welcoming others to know the good news of Jesus Christ. Come to hear the stories of how our Christian family is growing in the face of difficult circumstances, and be inspired to live your faith where God has placed you.
