Reflection by Fr Tom:

On the Second Sunday of Easter of the Jubilee Year 2000, at the Mass for the canonization of St. Faustina Kowalska, Pope John Paul II proclaimed that "from now on throughout the Church this Sunday will be called Divine Mercy Sunday." In St. Faustina's diary, paragraph 699, she wrote Jesus' teaching, "My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which grace flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come forth from the very depths of My most tender mercy...The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy." Two of the Church's seven Precepts deal with confession and Communion; any of us can take advantage of the Feast of Divine Mercy by seeking out these sacraments over the next couple of weeks. In today's Gospel, Thomas experienced the Lord's mercy despite his questions and doubts. With Thomas let us proclaim in this Easter season, "My Lord and my God!"

Easter Memorials:

There's still time to remember someone in a special way by providing a donation for our Easter flowers in the chapel. Please enclose your offering in an envelope marked "FLOWERS" with your name and the person you wish to remember. A list will be printed in a later bulletin. Thank you for your consideration.

Collections for April 16, 2017

11:00 a.m. - $ 437.00
7:30 p.m. - $ 125.00
10:15 p.m. - $ 62.00
Total - $ 624.00

CCM Student Contributions

Sunday Collections are a major part of Catholic Campus Ministry's funding. Without them, we can not provide many of the activities we have each week. We ask that if you can, give $5-$10 a week or make a one time donation of $50-$100 per semester. We accept cash, check, and there are slips in the pews for credit card payments. Any amount is appreciated and makes a difference. Thank you for your generosity.
